If button type is CTA with background
then we need to ask for background color too...

A screenshot of the second slide in a hero carousel for Chubb. The slide features a sunset over a body of water with a small island in the distance. The text "Second Slide" is prominently displayed, followed by the subtext "Second slide, to the people you love and care about most." At the bottom left, there are three small circular navigation dots.

A screenshot of the third slide in a hero carousel for Chubb. The background is a warm, orange-toned image of a cup of coffee with steam rising from it. The text "iStock by Getty Images" is repeated across the top. The main heading is "Chubb Cousins", followed by the text "From your home and automobiles, to the people you love and care about most." Below this, there are two purple buttons labeled "Test CTA" and "Secondary CTA".

A screenshot of the fourth slide in a hero carousel for Chubb. The background is a teal-colored image showing two people in conversation. A white text box is overlaid in the center with the heading "The Overlooked Gap in Financial Advice", the subtext "Add value and grow your businesses by understanding your clients' property and casualty (P&C) needs.", and a "Learn more >" link. At the bottom, there are five small square navigation dots, with the fourth one being filled.
